ATTACHMENT BCONTENT DESCRIPTION OF FOLDERS

(MISC-21)

MISC-21.1 Instrument of Gift (from National Archives)

Copies of the Instruments of Gift that provided for the Transfer of personal papers of Presidents Hoover, Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson to the United States Government. There is no Instrument of Gift as such covering the transfer of Roosevelt's papers.

A copy of the Presidential Libraries Act, 69 STAT. Public Law 373-Aug 12, 1955 is also in this folder.

MISC-21.2 CIA stipulations for Archives & Presidential Libraries

CIA memos outlining document control procedures, recommended by the Agency, for access to classified CIA documents in Presidential Libraries.

Also noted in a 12 Sep 68 memo ... "an assurance on 11 Sep 1968 from Mr. Walker the officer in charge of Presidential Libraries in the National Archives and Records Service that classified material will not become available to the public for many years - "we are thinking in terms of 75-100 years," ... "and that CIA will remain master of the disposition and use of its own donations to the National Archives, of which the Presidential Libraries are a part."

A copy of the procedures at National Archives covering the acceptance and maintenance of material for deposit, restrictions on availability and use, study, research, fees, etc., at all Presidential Libraries.

MISC-21.3 Contributions from CIA to LBJ Library and Library Annex

Lists of contributions from all Directorates for the LBJ Library. Notations are made throughout this file that some material went directly to Austin, while the remainder was being retained in either various vaulted areas in Headquarters or in the CIA Annex awaiting instructions--due to their classification and sensitivity.

A September 1968 memo states that everything in the White House vault was scheduled to be shipped to Austin. (This same procedure was followed in assembling the Truman, Eisenhower, and Kennedy Libraries.)

MISC-21.4 Receipts

Copies of all receipts for documents sent to Austin and Records Center.

ATTACHMENT B

MISC-21.8 Duplicate copies of Memos

MISC-21.9 Kennedy Presidential Library

A separate folder was made for the Kennedy Library material. (See MISC-21.10 for all other Presidents.)
The Kennedy folder has many memos relating to the planning phases attached to designating and collecting the appropriate documents for the Library.

A complete list of CIA documents that have been transferred to the JFK Library is included, as well as an index to material that was retained by CIA because of the sensitivity of the matters included in them. Any reference to this latter category of reports must be made with specific permission of the Agency.

MISC-21.10 "OTHER" Presidential Libraries, ie: Hoover, Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower, and Nixon

This folder designates specific files in the Agency that contain information on the presidents named above; this information could be useful to a person in writing a history on the presidential eras.
